Uniform Shop

History – Lisa Woodland
   - a few meetings have been had to discuss what might happen with the uniform shop as present organisers leaving
   - Pickles schoolwear have been met with and propose the following – inschool shop, online ordering, good quality/reasonable pricing/good range and design, colour brochure to go out with orientation pack

Discussion
   - concerns about how much control would be retained when shop is outsourced
   - Current situation is that uniform shop not earning profits
   - 5% rebate optional – welfare based
   - second hand shop to be maintained
   - time frame for contract runs on an annual cycle and is negotiable – detail in contract
   - parent lawyer has looked over the contract with some minor points for consideration
• introduction of eftpos payment facility and cash payments—no cheques accepted
• Balmain campus very happy and has person from Pickles running the shop
• volunteer to work at Leichhardt shop weekly and any payment from Pickles to that person would be donated to school for welfare fund use
• decision to be made asap otherwise uniform won’t be in stock for orientation time and start of year
• Uniform documentation needed for tax purposes for parents and school next year
• Judy spoken to Lowes and they want the opportunity to present to the P&C, their proposal for a shop
• general discussion about poor quality control and badly stocked when dealing with Lowes
• discussion about whether to give them the opportunity to present to P&C
• question asked whether this would effect Blackwattle Bay Campus— that is for Blackwattle to negotiate
